Dear Sir:

I am pleased to send you under separate cover for your genealogical department, a copy of the lineage chart of my grand parents Quartus Cooke and Lucy Hopkins which I trust may prove of value to others who may trace their ancestry to some of these families.

A complete narrative account has been prepared, in quadruplicate, in typewritten form, for members of my immediate family, ready for printing when conditions will permit this being done. This narrative covers all those appearing on the chart; the ancestry in England as developed of many of the families; and a complete record of the descendants of Quartus and Lucy (Hopkins) Cooke.

I regret I can not furnish you a copy of the narrative at this time but will be glad to answer any inquiries from your clientele regarding the names shown, to the extent my records will permit.

It will be noted I have been unsuccessful in completing three lines as follows:

- A. Mrs. Elizabeth Graham, widow of George Graham of Hartford, Conn., who married at Hartford as her second husband Consider Hopkins, November 14, 1713. George Graham was born April 29 or 31, 1687, son of Benjamin Graham (1662-1725) and grandson of Henry Graham or Grehme, the settler.
- B. Hannah, wife of Joseph Gilbert, Jr., of Hartford, Conn. Probably married about 1728-9.
- C. Hannay Wolcott who married Samuel Crocker at Norwich, Conn., December 30, 1697.

Any information your readers can furnish me about the lineage of these three women, at present unidentified, will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Ralph W. Cooke
